

MOTHER AND BABE FOUND STARVING AT STREET CURB

Woman Unconscious in Gutter
as Three-Year-Old Girl Appeals to Policeman.

Just before daybreak to-day Policeman Kaldelisch of the West Thirty-seventh street station, turning into Twenty-eighth street from Tenth avenue, heard a child's voice, crying softly. He found a girl about three years old, standing on the curb beside a woman who was lying in the gutter. The child wore a bright red cap and a long blue coat and looked bright and well fed. The policeman's first thought was that she had been stolen from a prosperous home. The gray haired woman in the gutter was poorly and scantily dressed.

"Please help my mamma," said the little girl. "She is so tired, she fell down."

The girl told the policeman her name was Mary Watt, like her mother's, and that they used to live in Thirtieth street, but "the man there wouldn't let them stay any longer."

Mother and baby were taken to the station and locked in a cell. The police thought the woman was drunk. But to Magistrate Frosch he told a story which cleared her of drinking.

Her husband, a carpenter, worked so little, she said, that she had to work in a costume factory at a head manufacturing machine and had saved $2 out of her earnings. Her husband, she said, took her money and ran away with it Saturday.

Monday was rent day. She and the baby were evicted. What little money she had was spent on food for the baby. She herself ate practically nothing. They slept in the park and in doorways. Mrs. Watt stood starvation until this morning, when she dropped in the street. Magistrate Frosch turned the mother and child over to Mrs. Coleman, the probation officer. After they had been fed and rested she took them to the Tompkins County Court for a warrant for the father.

For Gibbels the Best Master-Clothiers Produce Their Best

PERSONALITY abhors restriction. The musician chooses his instrument from a group of baby grands—the artist his brushes from a "thousand camels' hairs."

In the matter of dress mere man—the individual—asks but little—it being only the chance to choose his fabric, his hang of coat, his style of tailoring from a stock fore-known to be reliable.

In planning Gibbel clothing, this has been our aim—its accomplishment is expressly Gibbel service.

We offer the service of a men's store unrestricted in the presentation of the proudest products of the worthiest master tailors of the country.

We offer in its broadest sense a range of styles and fabrics comprehending the possibility of fullest expression of individual taste in the matter of clothes for men.

Gibbel Suits for Men $15 to $45

Gibbel Overcoats $15 to $60

Extraordinary Offering of Men's Half-Hose 25c a Pair; $2.90 a Dozen Pairs

From hosiery importers known nation-wide for the name and quality of their goods come 12,000 pairs, at a price secured only after much argument. All, save one lot, imported. Close inspection fails to reveal less than 50c quality—many are 75c or even $1 grades. Other good lots from our own stock make 20,000 pairs in all; a remarkably fine collection at the price, 25c pair.

Over 30 distinct styles, in many colorings, including French lisle with vertical stripes, French and German jacquard and striped lises, hand-embroidered lises, colored silk lises, with self clocks, French and German ingrain brilliant lises and imported grenadines. There are plain colors, quiet designs and pronounced ones—to suit every man's taste. AND THE SAVING IN ANY CASE IS AT LEAST ONE-HALF. Men will buy these socks by the dozen pairs for themselves, or for Christmas gifts. 25c pair, boxes of 12 pairs, $2.90. Main Floor.

The Wonderful Gibbel Toy Store

Light, airy, spacious, it spreads over almost the whole Fourth Floor, and has more delightful and fascinating playthings in it than any little boy or girl could imagine from now until a year from Christmas, if they thought just as hard as they could. And you simply can't go into the DOLL ROOM without drawing a long breath of excitement—for no such doll show ever happened before. Here are some new visitors:

Large, Full-jointed Dolls at $3 for $5 Quality

A little lot of big dolls bought in Germany to sell at this low price, 20½ inches tall, in their shoes and stockings; sewed wigs, light or dark; fully jointed in hips, knees and elbows, with wooden ball-joints; and eyes that "go to sleep." Fine news indeed. Fourth Floor.

Victrola X, $75
